

PICHKITTI BANNANGKOON

Research Activities

Areas of Expertise

Mathematics Education, Functional Analysis

Current Interests and Activities

My research interest is the development of teaching tools, methods and approaches for Mathematics classes at high school and college levels. My research focuses on how to apply self-improvement techniques to develop the growth mindset of students with the purpose of developing their capability for learning how to learn, building up their positive attitudes towards mathematics and appreciation of the beauty of Mathematics.